

FMUSER FUQ-4213J EIT Multiplexer 12 ASI Inputs 2 ASI Outputs 2 Gigabit IP Outputs ISO13818 EN300468 Automatic EIT Integration Digital TV Headends Product overview

The FUQ-4213B EIT multiplexer provides automatic EIT table multiplexing with 12 ASI inputs, 2 ASI outputs, and 2 gigabit IP outputs. It processes transport streams by integrating EIT PIDs and rebuilding PSI/SI information. Designed for digital TV headend systems, it simplifies EPG services without external servers.

Key feature

- Integrates EIT Automatic Multiplexing: Combines EIT table PIDs with programs, eliminating external EPG servers.
- Supports 12 ASI Input Ports: Handles high-capacity transport streams in packet and byte modes.
- Allows PSI/SI Rebuilding and Editing: Customizes program-specific information for compliance.
- Delivers TS over UDP Output: Mirrors ASI outputs via IP, supporting unicast and multicast.
- Enables Cascading Connection Support: Links multiple units for scalable headend setups.
